NAVAL STATION — The "Doobie Brothers" and "Foreigner" bands along with special guest Gary Hoey will perform here Saturday, Aug. 6 at 6:30 p.m.

In preparation for the concert, 25 volunteers a day are needed Aug. 4 and 5 to build the stage. Morale Welfare and Recreation will also need 25 volunteers on Sunday, Aug. 7 to break down the stage after the concert.

No carpentry experience is necessary, but the job will require heavy lifting, loading and carpentry work.

Participants will be needed Thursday and Friday between 8 a.m. and 4 p.m. and Sunday from 8 a.m. until 3 p.m.

Civilian clothing is permitted and old work clothes are recommended. In addition, all volunteers must wear closed-toed shoes.

All volunteers will receive tickets to the concert, lunch and a T-Shirt.

To sign up as a volunteer call 556-5570.

Doobie Brothers set for concert at Naval Station

NAVAL STATION — The Doobie Brothers, Foreigner and Gary Hoey return to Naval Station San Diego on Saturday, Aug. 6, as part of the 1994 Marlboro Music Military Tour.

This outdoor event is billed as one of the best values of summer on San Diego's concert circuit.

General admission tickets cost $5 and are currently on sale at all MWR ticket outlets and Ticketmaster locations.

The legendary Doobie Brothers started life in 1969 as a hard-rocking trio and have toured virtually nonstop through the 1970s, gaining their reputation as the band to see in concert.

Today the Doobie Brothers have won four Grammy Awards and accumulated 13 gold and 11 multi-platinum albums. Their classic hits remain top requested radio favorites.

For further concert and ticket information, call 556-2174, 556-7198 or 556-2180.
